FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A statement from Stephanie Kusie, MP on Andrew Scheer’s decision to step down as Leader of the Conservative Party of Canada

Calgary, AB –

“I was shocked by Andrew Scheer’s decision to resign as Leader of our Party. This past election was a difficult one to say the least, and Andrew should be proud of what he accomplished: he reduced the Trudeau Liberals to a minority government; he gained 26 new seats, and won the popular vote. These are not small things.

“Andrew has been an exceptional leader and MP for the people of Regina Qu’Appelle. I can say unequivocally that he has been fair, kind, supportive, and has given me wonderful opportunities to grow in my role as a Member of Parliament. For Canadians, he has fought for freedom and justice, and has held Justin Trudeau to account every step of the way. For all this and more, I say thank you, Andrew.

“The next few months will be challenging for our Party. Emotions and ambitions will run high. During this time, our team, our Party, and Canada’s Conservatives must remember the one thing that Andrew Scheer asked of us: to stay united. There is more than enough division in our country and in our world – and now is not the time to come undone.

“The future of the Conservative Party is bright and I look forward to serving my constituents of Calgary Midnapore as we welcome a new decade and a new leader and I wish Andrew well as he goes to spend more time with his beautiful wife Jill, and their lovely children, Thomas, Henry, Grace, Madeline and Mary.”
