Conservative MP Stephanie Kusie provides update on plan to study of Not Criminally Responsible cases on behalf of Brentwood Five victims and their families

September 1, 2020
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALGARY, AB – This afternoon, MP Stephanie Kusie shared an update to Calgarians on the ‘Brentwood Five Massacre’ in a Facebook video.

After having met with the grieving families of Calgary’s biggest massacre, Kusie felt compelled to act and announced on June 30th, 2020 her plans to move a motion at the House of Commons Standing Committee on Justice and Human Rights.

Matthew de Groot’s next review date has been set for September 8th, 2020, and the victims’ families are concerned about further freedoms being granted at this hearing.

Kusie acknowledged that her ability to put forward this motion has been further delayed since Prime Minister Justin Trudeau prorogued Parliament.

“I will not dismiss the safety of Canadians and I will continue to advocate for the lives of five young people gone too soon,” Kusie said in her statement.
